

THE PROPER CAPER

Among the variety of tailor gowns made for the races, linen duck and holland suits figure conspicuously.

Slender, long waisted women look very dainty in the new cross over blouses that tie at the side or in the back, as is found most becoming.

A new summer weight hopsacking, in admiral blue, cherry red and silvery cadet blue, is made into pretty day dresses for country and seaside wear.

Nearly all the pretty zephyrs, lawn and French batistes are finished on the skirt hem with tiny ruffles or small lapping frills made of the dress goods.

Low necked linings, under high waisted corsets of diaphanous fabrics, are seen at all fashionable summer resorts. The sleeves as a rule are unlined, but made excessively full.

Tea gowns for the summer are made of beautiful crepons of light ground, strown with flowers, also of flowered dotted Swiss muslin, tamboured or gandie and soft undressed India mulls.

The new make of crepon differs from the crinkled lines alternated with plain stripes and looks like idealized crocodile skin in respect to design, and the dyes are more beautiful than ever.

Plain Chambray and French zephyr dresses for morning wear have seamless shirred princess backs, with fronts pointed and finished either as a corselet with guimpe or in surplice form with folds coming from the shoulders.—New York Evening Post.

THE JEWEL CASKET.

Some hilts are seen as the handles of hatpins.

Twisted links of gold and platinum wire make sleeve bottoms that are pretty and refined.

At the normal college commencement in New York 350 girls had silver combs in their back hair.

There is an attractive quaintness in an oblong enamel pin with three children's figures set in a garland of gold and pearls.

Corks are luxuriously mounted. To them such descriptive words as spirals, flutes, renaissance, repousse, may be applied.

New rings have three rows of stones covering the top of the finger. The most distinguished of these had in the center a row of rather large pearls. These stood up prominently above the row of diamonds on each side.

A novel bit of realism was seen in a wreath. One-half had long leaves of olive turned on themselves, from which depend a diamond and tiny russet cat tails in high finished enamel. The other half of the wreath was of diamond leaves with pearl berries.—Jeweler's Circular.

CROWN AND SCEPTER.

The Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne travel much incognito, assuming the titles of Lord and Lady Sundridge.

The ex-Empress Eugenie of France is the godmother of 3834 French children who were born on March 16, 1896, the day of the birth of her son.

The Queen of Italy has founded a society for the reforming of ragged beggar children, who are to be taken from the streets and taught some useful trade.

Close to London lives the ex-Queen of Naples, once noted for her beauty which has not quite all vanished. She figures in Daudet's "The Kings in Exile" under the pseudonym, "Queen of Hlytia."

In view of the frequency of such accidents to him, it is of interest to note that there is a popular superstition in Germany to the effect that the Kaiser will ultimately meet his death through a carriage accident.

Young King Alexander of Serbia, who at 17 seized the reins of government, is a broad-shouldered boy of medium height, rather handsome and unusually intelligent. He is energetic and self-willed, and for his years unpleasantly cynical.

THE MOVING WORLD.

A man in California has invented a device that will prevent gas from escaping when it is blown out.

There are nearly twice as many newspapers printed in the State of New York now as there were in 1876.

French ingenuity has contrived an improved stone-cutting saw of remarkable efficiency—a circular saw having its edge set with black diamonds in the same way as the straight blades.

A new material, called rubber velvet, is made by sprinkling powdered tuit of any color over rubber cloth while the latter is hot and soft. The result looks like felt cloth, but is elastic, waterproof and exceedingly light.

Captain Buisson of the French cavalry is the inventor of what he calls a "hippometer," an instrument for measuring the distance covered by a horse. The instrument resembles a watch, and it works by the stepping of the animal.

PHILOSOPHICAL COGITATIONS.

A penitent's tear is an undeniable ambassador.—Spencer.

There is no index of character so sure as the voice.—Tancred.

The superior man is slow in his words and earnest in his conduct.—Confucius.

Happy are they that hear their detractions and can put them to mend ing.—Shakespeare.

"One ob de penalties ob greatness," said Uncle Eben, "is ter be specially conspicuous eberty time yer makes er fool ob yerself."—Washington Star.

The gate of heaven is love; there is no other. When generous act blooms from unselfish thought, the Lord is with us, though we know it not.—Lucy Larcom.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless

Preparation

OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.
